Workshop Report

The IQAC and library of Ramanujan College, University of Delhi organized a two day workshop on MARC 21 (Machine-Readable Cataloging) and RDA (Resource Description and Access) on 29th and 30th January 2024 for the library staff. The resource person for this workshop was Dr. K. N. Jha from Delhi Skill and Entrepreneurship University. It was inaugurated by the Principal Prof. S.P. Aggarwal. The organizers of the event were Dr. Bebi, College Librarian and Dr. Nirmalaya Samanta, Convenor. The workshop aimed to enhance the knowledge and skills of library professionals in cataloging and resource description, focusing on the MARC 21 format and RDA standards. The workshop was designed to be interactive and participatory. It included a combination of presentations, hands-on exercises, and discussions. Participants had the opportunity to engage with real-life cataloging scenarios and apply the concepts learned during the workshop from the resource person Dr. K.N. Jha. The key topics covered by the resource person were evolution, significance, structure and components of MARC 21 records and introduction to RDA. The workshop proved to be a valuable investment in the professional development of library staff.
